WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., June 12.—The first week of the summer season ended last night with several of the cottages occupied, and it is expected that by the last week of June there will be several hundred people at the Springs. The Greenbrier is filled with guests from the East and South who have found it impossible to make their trips to Europe, and have decided to spend the summer at White Sulphur. The White is beginning to fill rapidly with vacationists, and on June 15 it will open for the season.
Colonel William H. Palmer, of Rich-
